Summary: On May 10, 2001, Evelyn Kahl, attorney for the Energy Producers and Users Coalition (EPUC), wrote a letter (attached to the notice) to Cmmr. Lynch, Cmmr. Bilas, Cmmr. Brown, Cmmr. Duque, and Cmmr. Wood. The letter was also signed by Christine Jun, attorney for EPUC. The letter expressed EPUC's support for the petition of the California Industrial Users Group to modify Decision 01-04-006. The letter stated that in particular, EPUC supports the concurrent enrollment by customers in both the interruptible and OBMC programs. EPUC then suggested some other means of allowing customers to concurrently participate.

Summary: On May 10, 2001, Keith McCrea, counsel for the California Manufacturers & Technology Association, had two separate telephone communications: with Ann

Watson, advisor to Cmmr. Bilas, and Laura Krannawitter, advisor to Cmmr. Duque. McCrea discussed the rate impacts emanating from the two proposals indicating that large power customers would see rate increases ranging from 64% to 72% on average, whereas residential customers would see rate increases only of about 15%. McCrea urged that the equal cents per kWh allocated be rejected and that the shortfall arising from the 130% of baseline exemption be kept within the residential class.

Summary: On May 10, 2001, Jack Stewart, President of the California Manufacturers & Technology Association, met with Jonathan Lakritz, advisor to Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. Keith McCrea, counsel for CMTA also participated in the meeting. Stewart and McCrea emphasized the harsh impacts that would result from both the proposed decision and alternate. Stewart and McCrea expressed concern that these proposals would push the State into a recession and indicated that the disproportionate rate impacts among the different classes was unfair and should be corrected.

Summary: On May 10, 2001, Jack Stewart, President of the California Manufacturers & Technology Association, met with Cmmr. Brown in San Francisco. Also present were David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Brown, Keith McCrea, counsel for CMTA, and Bill Booth, counsel for California Large Energy Consumers Association (CLECA). Stewart and McCrea discussed the impacts that the two proposals would have on large business customers, indicating that these proposals were a prescription for an economic recession in California. Booth discussed the allocation methods used in the two proposals which produced wide disparities in rate impacts among customer classes. Both CMTA and CLECA representatives supported a delay in the decision to allow another alternative to be prepared.
